"Kim was totally supportive of me from the moment I decided to put the house on the market, and remained so through the stress of preparing it and the shock of a very quick sale, for which she negotiated an excellent price, well above initial expectations. She was intuitive in identifying the purchasers; she felt they would love my house even though they had been looking in a lower price bracket. She was right. I would recommend Kim unreservedly to anyone selling in this area".

"When contemplating the sale of a property, sooner or later, we have to choose an agent. This is never an easy decision, yet it is perhaps the most important decision we have to make, because it will impact on every aspect of the transaction and determine the outcome. What were we looking for in an agent? Integrity, a good reputation, excellent communication skills and most importantly, a track record of solid results. In Jennifer Edwards of RA Lawrence blue mountains lifestyle properties, we have found an agent who had it all. Our property was on the market for only one day, and was sold during the first inspection for the price we wanted to achieve. Contracts were exchanged a week later. Outstanding results are only achieved by outstanding people. Jennifer Edwards is one of those thorough professionals, and we have no hesitation in recommending Jennifer Edwards".

"Just wanted to say a BIG thank you for all your hard work, persistence, professionalism and most of all your continued sense of determination and never giving in whilst marketing and selling our home. I knew from meeting you the first very day that you were going to be the agent that would get the job done and go the extra mile. Well the extra mile included:- feeding the fish, skimming the pond, cutting fresh flowers, collecting the mail & coping with a sale that did not get over the line. Most of all your wonderful sense of humour that you never lost even in the heat of the moment. I am so pleased I chose you and I would highly recommend you to any vendor that was considering selling. You shone above your peers".
